Ireland is a small open economy

- We are small, so ...
 - 4 m population size of Greater Manchester area
 - EXPORTS = JOBS
- One of the most open economies in the world
 - 156% of GDP is traded
 - One-third approx. private sector jobs are directly or indirectly in internationally traded sector
- Enterprises trading internationally
 - Indigenous manufacturing and international services (3500 Co's)
 - Foreign direct investment/MNCs (1000+ Co's)
 - Tourism sector

Irish-owned companies are central to Ireland's continued economic success and prosperity

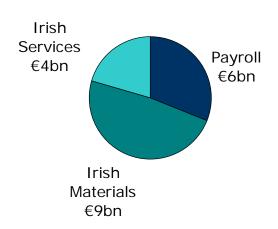

- Enterprise Ireland has 3,500 client companies who:
 - Achieved exports of €13 billion (2009)
 - Gross gains €500m
 - Had sales of €32.6 billion
 - Employed 133,500 people directly and created 7,400 new jobs (net loss 19,000) and supporting indirectly another 100,000 jobs.
 - Spent approx. €20b on payroll costs and Irish-sourced goods and services
 - Delivered a significant regional impact in all parts of the country 60% of jobs are outside greater Dublin area.
- Direct Investment abroad (€123b) now exceeds direct investment in Ireland (€120b) – 2008.
