Exercise 2 WEBSITE

The screenshot shows a Windows Internet Explorer browser window displaying the Douglas-Westwood website. The browser's address bar shows the URL <http://www.dw-1.com/>. The website's header includes navigation links for About Us, Contact Us, Sitemap, and Resources, along with Basket, Login, and Register. The main content area features the Douglas-Westwood logo and the tagline "energy business analysts". A navigation menu lists Sectors, Services, Publications, Downloads, News, Events, and Search. A central text block states: "Established in 1990, Douglas-Westwood is an independent employee-owned company and the leading provider of business research & analysis, strategy and commercial due diligence on the global energy services sectors. We have offices in Canterbury (England), Aberdeen (Scotland) and New York (USA) and to date have completed more than 600 projects and provided products & services to 400 clients in 70 countries." Below this, there is a quote: "What differentiates Douglas-Westwood is its research" - Energy Department Official. A section titled "Employment Opportunities" is also visible. At the bottom, a navigation bar includes "Oil & Gas", "Renewables", "Energy", and "Services". The "Services" section lists: "Bespoke consultancy, advisory and research services. Published business research." with a "Learn more" link, and a list of services: "Advisory", "Publications", "Research", and "Transactions". On the right side, there is a "Global News Coverage" section with a list of news items: "13 Jan 11 Douglas-Westwood Hosts SUT Learning Luncheon", "15 Dec 10 Rigs, recessions and the tyranny of the futures curve", and "02 Dec 10 Douglas-Westwood latest to join supply-chain body". Below this is a "Presentations" section with a list of presentations: "29 Nov 10 Global Offshore Prospects, Singapore", "23 Nov 10 Global Energy Prospects and the Role of Renewables, London", and "10 Nov 10". The browser's taskbar at the bottom shows the Windows Start button, several open applications, and the system clock displaying 22:57.
