

Junior Geologist Vacancy (June 2025)

BRG Ltd. currently has a vacancy for one or more recent graduates or junior geologists, ideally with some mineral exploration experience, to cover the summer field season. The work will be field based, and the successful candidate will be involved in both regional and advanced exploration programmes.

This is an excellent opportunity for an enthusiastic geologist to work for an expanding company with ongoing opportunities. Responsibilities will include:

- Drill core logging and sampling
- Supervision and monitoring of diamond drilling rigs
- Geological mapping and sampling
- Geophysical team support
- Geochemical sampling

The successful candidate will have:

- A recognised honours degree in Geology.
- A full clean driving licence.
- Good interpersonal communication skills
- The ability to work as part of a team
