Richard Langford (Parkmore Environmental)

Henning Moe (MKO)

Collecting accurate hydrogeological data is essential for understanding Irish water resources. In this Technical Discussion Meeting, Henning Moe (MKO) will introduce Uisce Éireann's Supply Demand Balance project. Pamela Bartley (Hydro-G) and Richard Langford (Parkmore Environmental) will present case studies from Co. Tipperary and Co. Kerry on collecting hydrogeological data via drilling and pumping tests for the Supply-Demand Balance project.
